

Assaults Resulting in Death

All offenses should be reported according to the time and date it becomes known to law enforcement.

In the case of an assault resulting in death, agencies should update the offense file class from assault to homicide and resubmit the incident.